

DIE ABSCHLÜßPRÜFUNG (COMPREHENSIVE EXAMINATION)

Course No: GER N101T

Course Title: Beginning German

Marks:

Max. Marks: 60

CLOSED BOOK

NAME _____ IDNO. _____

Q.4. Translate the following sentences to German and write each German sentence in the space below each English sentence. Fill up the crossword with the German words corresponding to the English words written in bold.

Spell out all the numbers. Each spelling mistake costs 1 mark.

[(12×2) + (9×4)]

1		3				5
1
2					4
3
4
	5,2					6
	6

D = down; A = across

1,A: I am offering a cigarette to my friend. But he refuses, "Cigarettes affect my health."

2,A, 3,D: Mr. Maier is paying a bill. He asks his wife, "Do you have four-20 Euronotes?"

3,A: Mrs. Kremmer works with a company. She has 40 days free in a year.

4,A: Today at 11 o'clock the lady-teacher is starting the class. She says, "I am reading the sentence. Please repeat the sentence!"

Q.4. Continued

1,D, 5A: Stefan and his family are eating dinner together at around 7 o'clock. "Give me a knife and a napkin also please!" says Stefan. (Hint: me = mir in Dative)

2,D: "How much does the book cost?" asks Martina in the shop. "It is expensive and costs 70 Euro. Are you buying it?" says the shop-assistant. (Hint: shop-assistant = der Verkäufer).

6,A: The lady asks her daughter, "Are you explaining the sentences to your sister? I am asking this, because she does not understand the grammar."

4,D: After breakfast around 9 o'clock, Mike walks to the university because he has no bicycle. Mostly he goes with his friend Robert along the Philosophenstreet.

5,D; 6,D: Sometimes John and Oliver learn together. Today John finds no pen in his bag and asks Oliver, "Do you have a pen or a pencil?"