Q. 1 People have most of the time fixed Point of View. The status, expectations, roles, relationships, etc. are conveniently used to tag people. Pick up one relationship that we as human beings take for granted refusing to allow that relationship to have independent status. As writers, there should be an unbiased presentation. Write a paragraph of fifteen lines that frees that relationship (think and pick up any on your own) of biases and presents it neutrally but naturally. (8M)

Q. 2 A tourist goes around a place to gain experience of the way of life of people. Assuming that you are tourist who has gone to visit a forest sanctuary, write a fifteen sentence paragraph about your experience. The experience explanation is to be sensuous. Once the paragraph is written, underline the phrase that explains which sense is explained. Every sense should be used at least three times. (8M)

Q. 3 Write four details for each one of the following that help the readers create a meaning to get connected to it. The answer should be in a phrase only. (4M)

- A tree
- An ant
- The sunrise
- A failure
