

Birla Institute of Technology and Science, Pilani

II Sem 2022-23

Creative Writing GS F241

Comprehensive Examination

Open Book

Regular

Date: 13 May 2023

Time: 3 Hrs

Marks: 30

Q.1 English language has voiced and voiceless sounds. The voiceless sounds are P /p/, T /t/, K /k/, F /f/, TH /θ/, S /s/, SH /ʃ/, H /h/, and CH /tʃ/. The remaining consonant sounds are voiced sounds. Voiceless sounds create soft and serene effect whereas the voiced sounds create lots of strong effects. Write a poem of 12-15 lines on any aspect of nature. The poem has to begin with the calm effect and it has to increase the violent touch and end with a very powerful sound combination taking nature at an awe inspiring level. (7M)

Q.2 A new university wants to come up with the university logo. The five Deans of the university are given the task to design the logo. Due to the regional differences, the Deans end up creating a logo that is funny, childish, and immature. For the conversation taking place among the five Deans, write a one act play. To enhance the effect, you may draw the logo as well that add to the fun part. Your dialogue should be clear and complete. (6M)

Q.3 A PoV changes lots of things. The information available to the observer makes him/her limited to that information – a) not acknowledging that anything else exists, and b) that whatever is visible to them is to be known to all. Such perceptions lead to difference in understanding. With reference to the printout of the PoV, enlist how many pieces of information get your immediate attention and why? What are the similarities that remain central despite the differences? (6M)

Q.4 Rewrite the following sentences with specific reference to the sense mentioned against the sentences. (5M)

- Moon shines in the sky (sight).
- It is raining (sound).
- The wind is blowing (touch).
- Rose smells nice (smell).
- The dew was tasty (taste).

Q.5 With reference to the following picture, mention how the setting affects the theme. (6M)

